INFECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, GUITENBURG RACE TRACK, May 9. - If there was ever a disagreeable journey it is that to the Guttenburg track. The roads were inchethick in dust and the passing carriages raised it in clouds that were thick as fog. It settled down on the perspiring faces of the pedestr ans in such quantities as to make them look like coal-miners by the time they reached the track. The weather was very warm and the a large crowd. The weather was fine and the race-course was crowded. The programme was a very fine one and promised good racing. The track was in the best of condition and very fast.

Once Again won easily from lima B., a 20 to I shot; Saille Harper was third.
The second race found Leater a rad-hot favorite, for Taral had the mount. Airshalt, one of Mike Dwyers youngstess, was heavily backed for second position. A quiet tip on tharade sent many a dollar on the black colt, and Airtight also had a following.
The two favorites got away the best of the start, and Leater won handly by a length. Airshalt was second and Airtight third.
A rumor that Teney worked a fast trial this morning went the rounds of the track. It is said that the tried a mile and a farlong in 1.57 with 116 pounds up.

Gold Exports This Week Exceed Seven Millions.

The West Is Bullish, but New York Traders Are Timorous.

The situation abroad exeited some alarm among total Stock Exchange operators this morning, but it should be stated that European Spancial advices did not reflect any serious turbances there. The shipments of gold and the depletion in bank reserves, however, occasioned distrust as to the immediate future of prices, and all the professionals took a hand in sciling the list. The market suffered quite a slamp, the de cline in prices ranging from 1/4 to 1/4. Ope rators played no favorites but hammered everything on the list. Chicago, it was said, was inclined to be more builish, and houses with Western connections did pick up some stocks at the lowest point. The West is strongly builtsh on the splendld onflook for the crops.

The market closed heavy on the report from Philadelphia that there was a run on the Third National Bank of that city.

The European steamships to-day took out 77, 201, 000.
The Bank Statement was unfavorable, showing a loss in reserve of $2, 579, 350, which reduces the amount held by the banks in excess of legal requirement to $4, 703, 350,

JEALOUS ANTONIO'S BULLETS.

Wedding To-Day.

Filomena Gravallese.

Crrille Euhot, a dashing Frenchman, thirtythree years old, lies dangerously wounded at Believue Hospitel with a pistol wound inflicted by Antonio Cerrigito, his jestous Italian rivat for the hand of pretty Filomena Gravallese, locked up at Police Hendquarters, and on what was to have been her nappy bridal day Filomena finds herself in custour as a witness to what may possibly prove the murder of her Itsiian giri of only eighteen, and it is little wonder that her brilliant black eyes and cherry lips captivated Cyrille. She came to this country from Italy five years ago with her mother and brothers and sisters.

Autonic, her father, is a tailor. He has been in this country nine years, and when his family came to America he had prepared for them a comfortable home at 251 Elizabeth sircet.

All the family were industrious and they prospered. The eldest daughter married a young leadan tailor and then Flomena went out to sew to help swell the family treasurty.

With the Gravellese family boarded Antonio Cerriglio, a young lealist, who had no regular trade, but made money neverbeless in speculating and acting as a real estate agent. He was mine years older than Falomena, and the family considered min more like a relative than a boarder and never thought that his love for Falomena was more than fraterons.

Neither did Filomena then give evidence of the tender passion in her breast, but while working in a shop on Twenty-fifth street she inct and fell in love with Cyrille Buhot, a fellow-workman.

Bands thaily obtained a more lucrative position as cutter in Berthelon's tailoring establishment at 572 Fifth avenue, and he then begged Filomena to marry nim.

But filomena feared her father, who said to ber:

way with him.
This angered the father, who stormed and raved like all fathers, but finally gave his con-home.

Cyrille had gone up to his room for a minute, bidding Filomena wait. On his return she grasped his arm and whispered excitedly:

"See! there is Cerrigilo following us. I fear he means harm."

"Never mind," said Cyrille "let us hasten alone."

Twenty-cighth street, there was the sharp report of a pissol.
Filomena turned just quick enough to see the vindictive Cerrigito fire two more bullets point blank at her lover's back, and Cyrille fell fainting into her arms.
Cerrigito turned to fice, but Detective Sergeant Cosgrove happened to be passing and immediately divining the situation seized the wond-like murders.

said he did not know cerrigito personally, but regarded him as his rival Filomena's eider sister said this morning that Cerrigito called at her house at 121 Forsyth atreet yesterday and appeared sick and down-hearted. He said he had the grin. Her family had never considered him as mena's lover, thinking she was too young Thometa's fover, taining she was too young to marry.

They knew little about Buhot, but objected to his attentions to Filomena simply because he was a Frenchman and not an Italian.

Autonio was arraigned at Jefferson Market to-day and held to await the result of Cyrille Babot's wounds.

Then calling an ambulance he sent the wounded man to Bellevue Hospital and took Cerrigito and Flomena to Police Headquarters.

Dr. Herkele asid this morning that he hoped Buhot would recover. Two of Cerrigito's believa had merely grazed his intended victum's skin, but the powder had burned hig holes in his clothing, so close was Cerrigito to Buhot when ne fired.

The turd bullet is still in Buhot's back, somewhere near the right shoulder tolade, but has not been definitely located. The pistol meed was a 32-calibre buildog.

Buhot sat upin bed in the prison ward this morning and told the story as related. He said he did not know Cerrigito personally, but regarded him as his rival.

Movements of the Candidates for the Big Handicap.

TEUTON'S TRAINER SANGUINE

There Will Be a Great Array of Crack Jockeys in the Race.

The Handicap candidates did no especially fast work yesterday. Demuth was the only horse who was given a fast move and he went a mile in 1.45%. This is a good performance, especially as the track was soft and heavy. Hyton, another candidate, went a mile and a quarter in 2.17. Judge Morrow and Cousin leems were out, but only galloped. It is said that Jimmy McLaughlin will ride Tenny, in case Demuth does not start. If the latter does go to the post then Barnes will ide Tenny.

Trainer William Lakeland, owner of Tea Fray, gave it out yesterday that Hamilton would rive his borse in the Handicap.

f Byron McClelland's string of eighteen ther-oughbreds, including the famous Salite Mc-Clelland and the fast filly, The Les, will be shipped to Gravesend next week. Mr. John A. Morris has a very fast filly in l'Intriguante. Yesterday she won her fourth cessive race at Washington.

Potomac and stussell the crack two-year of last year are both looming up as probable starters in the Handleap. Both are reported to be going great guns and with their light imposts they may have a look in at the finish. Only a few days ago Romance was an even money chance in a race with a lot of very poor horses. Yesterday, he was at 40 to 1 and he jumped out and best some of the fastest sprinters at couttenburg very handily. Form players must have felt discouraged after this Moss Rose colt, in the two-year-old rose yesterday, was a good thing. He was brought up from Monmouth, and his owner, Lucien Appleby won a pile of money on his victory.

Uncle Bob's victory was a surprise for the talent at Guttenburg yesterday. They waited whim for delivery to Mias Mary Kellard, of 3 to see the stable money go on, but they watched in vain. Uncle Bob opened at a short price, and at the close the bookies were offering 15 to 1 against his chances. Those police official and shortfill in the sountry.

Jimmy McLaughlin, the jockey, is hard at work reducing weight. He now tips the scales at 117 and can easily get down to 115 pounds. My Fellow and Daniet have been declared out of the Brooklyn Handicap.

Jim Murphy, trainer of Teuton, has this to say regarding his colt's chances: ". I'll teil you there is unthing in the Brooklyn that can bear him.
